Chicago Strikers Code of Conduct

Introduction:

Chicago Stiker is committed to creating a positive and respectful environment for players, coaches, parents, and supporters. The following Code of Conduct outlines the expectations and standards of behavior for all individuals associated with our youth soccer team. By participating in our program, each member agrees to uphold these principles and contribute to a safe and enjoyable soccer experience for everyone involved.

Player Code of Conduct:

Respect: Players will treat teammates, coaches, opponents, referees, and spectators with respect at all times, both on and off the field.
Sportsmanship: Players will demonstrate good sportsmanship, acknowledging the efforts and achievements of both their team and opponents.
Commitment: Players will attend practices and games regularly, arriving on time and fully prepared to participate.
Fair Play: Players will adhere to the rules of the game and strive to compete fairly, avoiding unsportsmanlike conduct.
Teamwork: Players will actively contribute to a positive team environment, supporting and encouraging their teammates.

Parent/Guardian Code of Conduct:

Support: Parents/guardians will support their child's involvement in soccer and encourage a positive attitude, win or lose.
Respect: Parents/guardians will respect the decisions and authority of coaches, referees, and opposing players, coaches, and parents.

Communication: Parents/guardians will maintain open and respectful communication with coaches, addressing concerns through appropriate channels.
Attendance: Parents/guardians will ensure their child attends practices and games regularly, notifying the coach of any absences in advance.
Sportsmanship: Parents/guardians will model good sportsmanship and encourage fair play, applauding positive efforts from all players.

Coach Code of Conduct:

Leadership: Coaches will lead by example, demonstrating integrity, respect, and professionalism in all interactions.
Player Development: Coaches will prioritize the development of each player, both in terms of skill and personal growth.
Fair Play: Coaches will uphold the principles of fair play, ensuring all players have equal opportunities to participate and develop.
Communication: Coaches will maintain open and honest communication with players, parents, and club officials, addressing concerns promptly.
Continuous Learning: Coaches will actively seek opportunities for professional development and stay informed about the latest coaching techniques and philosophies.

Spectator Code of Conduct:

Respect: Spectators will show respect for all players, coaches, referees, and fellow spectators, refraining from inappropriate language or behavior.
Sportsmanship: Spectators will applaud good plays from both teams and refrain from negative comments or actions.
Space: Spectators will stay within designated spectator areas and refrain from entering the field of play during games.
Support: Spectators will support their team in a positive manner, avoiding any behavior that may incite conflict.
Compliance: Spectators will comply with the rules and regulations of the facility hosting the game and follow any instructions from club officials.
